Hiking close to Salzburg

Memorable experiences in and around the city of Mozart!

A holiday in Salzburg is attractive in so many different ways, not just because of the countless art and cultural treasures in and close to the city. For 85 % of all summer visitors, in fact, hiking is the focus of their interest. The communities just outside Salzburg are ideal starting points for some truly great hikes.

Naturally, these same beautiful trails are also perfect for running or walking! Every community on the outskirts of Salzburg offers attractive hiking opportunities, with precise details available from the local tourist offices.

The easy hikes across the city mountains of Salzburg itself are also highly recommended. The Kapuzinerberg as well as the Mönchsberg both feature beautiful routes that anyone can manage easily, accompanied by truly wonderful views of the historic district and surrounding countryside.

Whether as a couple or with the whole family - the very varied hiking paths in and around Salzburg city live up to every expectation!

Hiking on the Untersberg

It is majestic and mystic: Numerous legends are interwoven with the Untersberg, at the foot of which lies Grödig.

From St. Leonhard bei Grödig, the Untersberg gondola floats up to the Geiereck at 1805 m (this lift ride is included with the Salzburg Card!). In clear visibility, you are treated to unforgettable 360° views across Rosittental out to the Salzkammergut, along with the peaks of the Hohe Tauern, Tennen- and Hagengebirge ranges.

The highest point on the Austrian side of the mountain is the Salzburger Hochthron (1853 m). This mountain of mystery and overwhelming natural power offers many hiking routes, fixed-cable climbing tours and even the opportunity to explore the mysterious Schellenberger ice cave.

Winter sports fans are also able to use the Untersbergbahn to get up the mountain. A walk of just 15 minutes then brings them from the Untersbergbahn mountain terminal to the 7.5 km long valley ski run, dropping all the way back down to Fürstenbrunn. From there, the No. 35 bus provides regular service back to the valley station.

Just a little farther afield and you will discover countless other attractive offers for hikers - the Salzkammergut as well as surrounding mountain regions are just a short drive away.
